DESCRIPTION

During lockdown, Past Master and organiser of the annual Drapers' Concerts Series, Sir Nicholas Jackson Bt, wrote an opera based on the story of Le Petit Prince.

Le Petit Prince tells the story of a pilot who, after crash-landing in the Sahara Desert, encounters an extraordinary little person, who claims to have arrived from another planet. On route to earth, the little person encountered a King, a Vain Man, a Drunkard, a Businessman, A Geographer and a Lamplighter.

Being accompanied by a flute, cello and piano, the Little Prince will be sung by the French Soprano Clara Barbier Serrano, in French. The pilot will be sung in English by the Tenor Michael Bell, and the role of a rose will be sung by Evelyn Freeman, whose father is a Liveryman of the Drapers' Company.

All your donations will be match funded by the Drapers' Company and the funds will be donated to the Royal College of Music Response Fund.
